BEWARE OF FRAUDSTERS & FRAUD WARNING

About RBML

Reliance BP Mobility Ltd (RBML), is a Joint Venture (JV) between two iconic brands, Reliance Industries Limited & bp. The JV came into existence from 10th July 2020. RBML has received the marketing authorization for transportation fuels, amongst other necessary regulatory and statutory approvals. Operating under the "Jio-bp" brand, the joint venture aims to become a leading player in India's fuels and mobility markets.

Disclaimer

Reliance BP Mobility Limited hereby brings to the notice of our customers, channel partners and public at large the prevalence of certain fraudulent activity being perpetuated by certain fraudulent and unscrupulous elements with an intent to deceive and defraud our valued customers, channel partners and the public at large by soliciting money towards allotment of dealership and its processing.

The public at large are cautioned to check the website address i.e., URL (https://partners.jiobp.in/) and make sure that they are logging into the correct website before progressing. It is understood that such unscrupulous elements and fraudsters are providing misleading information about our business, business models, business deals etc., through fraudulent websites, email telephone or WhatsApp messages etc. In order to provide legitimacy to the fraudulent website or call or message, such unscrupulous elements are falsely and illegally using names of Reliance, Jio & bp images, logo and addresses resembling to be that of Reliance BP Mobility Limited or that of its affiliates or holding or group companies and are soliciting Dealership allotment for Reliance's or Jio-bp petrol pumps and demanding money to be deposited in bank accounts by sending false e-mails, letters, by making fraudulent telephone calls/ WhatsApp Messages or by using a website purporting to be that of Reliance BP Mobility Limited or its affiliate or holding or group companies and/or by impersonating to be employees or authorized officers of Reliance BP Mobility Limited, its affiliate/holding/group companies.

The public at large are cautioned to check with the concerned bank the actual name of the account holder before transferring the money to the bank account of Reliance BP

Mobility Limited or Reliance Industries Limited or any of the affiliate or holding or group companies of Reliance BP Mobility Limited as the fraudsters are camouflaging the name of the actual account holder's name with fictitious names.

Reliance BP Mobility Limited cautions the public against providing personal information, sending money, or disclosing bank details to any person claiming to represent Reliance BP Mobility Limited or any of its affiliate or holding or group companies. If any person receives any such communication offering such allotment of Dealership against payment of any monies or otherwise, we strongly advise our customers, channel partners and public at large to seek information/clarifications by contacting us either by visiting or official website https://www.jiobp.com/ or by writing to us on customercare.petroleum@zmail.jiobp.com. We can also be contacted our customer care toll free number at1800-8919-023.

Please note that, we, Reliance BP Mobility Limited deploy an extremely professional and comprehensive approach for selection of Channel Partners/ Dealership allotment process; besides the application fees of Rs. 5000/- (to be paid on our website https://partners.jiobp.in/) we do not demand money/deposits from any general public or prospective partners prior to processing the application or candidature of the channel partner. In any case such selection is not done without personally meeting the Applicants. Further, Reliance BP Mobility Limited employees do not use generic email addresses like GMAIL, Yahoo, etc., nor do they communicate through WhatsApp.

If any suspicious activity is noticed, individuals are encouraged to report the incident to their local Police Station. Individuals may also contact nearby RBML office (office addresses are available on our website https://partners.jiobp.in/); in case any suspicious activity using the name of Reliance BP Mobility Limited (Jio-bp) is observed, as this will help us take necessary actions against such fraudulent websites.

Public at large are hereby advised not to send/receive money to/from such fraudsters. Reliance BP Mobility Limited or its affiliate or holding or group companies will not be liable whatsoever for any and all losses/damages suffered by anyone who falls victim to such scams from fraudsters through any mode of communication. Reliance BP Mobility Limited and its affiliate or holding or group companies hereby disclaims all such correspondence and messages and warns its customers and the general public to disregard such and to exercise extreme caution at all times.

Public at large are hereby strictly advised not to offer or provide any favour, gift, monetary benefit, or other inducement to any employee or representative of RBML in connection with their application or any related process.

If any employee, agent, or representative seeks or demands any form of favour, benefit, or undue advantage, the individual must immediately bring the matter to the notice of RBML

a) by email rbml.ethics@jiobp.com
b) by telephone to the Whistle-blower Hotline at +91 22-3511 9090 or
c) by letter addressed to the Ethics & Compliance Task Force, marked 'Private and Confidential', and delivered to the Chairman of the Ethics & Compliance Task Force, Reliance BP Mobility Limited, Dhirubhai Ambani Knowledge City – DAKC, Thane Belapur Road, Koperkhairane, Thane, Maharashtra 400710.

The Company maintains a zero-tolerance policy towards bribery, corruption, and unethical practices. Any attempt to offer or provide such benefits may result in immediate disqualification of the application and appropriate legal action.